

SPEECHCRAFT

A course in effective communication

What Is Speechcraft? Speechcraft is unique. It is a six session program of communication and leadership techniques without a classroom structure. Your only grade is the experience, knowledge and poise you gain. Experienced Toastmasters present the fundamentals of verbal communication and leadership techniques in a relaxed Toastmasters club type environment.

Why do a Speechcraft Course?

To Prepare

- To increase your income
- For greater recognition
- To move ahead in your community
- To move ahead in your occupation

To Develop

- Your self confidence and poise
- Your ability to present your message
- Your leadership ability

To Enjoy

- The experience of developing your communication skill in a friendly atmosphere
- Association with men and women who learn together and MOVE AHEAD.

Today's success goes to those who can communicate!

When? In the evening from 6:30pm to 9:30pm. Sandwiches, tea and coffee provided during the evening.

Where? Rowland Hassall School, Hassall Street, Parramatta

Enquiries? Telephone 0425 279 380 or send an email to speechcraft@parramattatm.org.au

How to Book? Fill in the application form and send it with your cheque or money order for $260 to Parramatta Toastmasters Club, PO Box 623, Parramatta, 2124 to reserve your place.

Never before has there been more emphasis on one's ability to speak, listen and think effectively, whether at home, on the job, or in the community. Speechcraft will help you develop your abilities in each of these areas.

Next course starts Tuesday, 1st February 2011. Note places are limited!
